

Our Constitution serves as the supreme law guiding governance, rights, freedoms, and the responsibilities of institutions and citizens. Through this section, users can explore constitutional provisions, amendments, governance structures, and key legal principles that shape democratic processes and public administration.